The United Nations Correspondents Association, UNCA was founded in 1948 when the UN began to meet regularly in New York. Our 200 plus members come from more than 50 nations. The purpose of the awards is to recognize and encourage excellence in reporting on the United Nations, its affiliated agencies, organizations and missions worldwide. The UNCA Awards include the $10,000 Elizabeth Neuffer Memorial Prize for written media (including online media), the $10,000 Ricardo Ortega memorial Prize for broadcast journalism, and a $10,000 prize sponsored by the UN Foundation for any entry in any medium that best covers the humanitarian and development aspects of the U.N. and its agencies. The awards are made possible by the generous support of the U.N. Foundation, Antenna 3 of Spain, the Euro-American Women's Council and UNCA itself. The UNCA/Ranan Lurie awards for political cartoons are $10,000 first prize, $5,000 second prize, $3,000 third prize and ten honorable mention plaques.
